Welcome

This is the third annual sale of unfitted polled and horned Shorthorn cattle. The purpose of this sale is to supply cattlemen with healthy and good doing cattle that are not highly fitted. Also, a sale of this caliber will give cattlemen a chance to offer cattle that are not halter broke or pampered. You will find many cattle offered in this sale that will produce profitable cattle for the buyer. Just a few words about some of the cattle offered in this sale:

There will be bulls in this sale that are in their working clothes. There are always buyers asking for bulls that are not highly fitted. You can find them in this sale. If you will look over the pedigrees in this catalog, there are a number of outstanding herd sires offered.

The females in this sale will consist of many good breeding cows, along with some outstanding 4-H heifer calves. The drouth is responsible for the selling of many females in this sale.

Immediately following the purebred cattle, we will sell commercial cows, heifer and steer calves. One consignment from the Peter Engel Estate, Grainfield, consists of eighteen cows and eight yearling heifers. These are good quality cattle. Richard Letsche, Luray, has consigned eighteen head of steer and heifer calves. These calves are all from Ulrich Bros. cows. Several outstanding 4-H steer and heifer calves in this group. One consignment consists of sixty-five steers; another consignment of forty-five steer and heifer calves; several other smaller consignments. We are expecting 300 to 350 commercial cattle for this sale.

If you are in need of Shorthorn cattle, you can find anything from a 4-H steer to a herd bull in this sale.

Sale will start at 12:00 noon. Be on hand early to look the cattle over.

MILTON H. NAGELY, Sale Mgr.

Bought this bull from Nagely's two years ago in the Come-As-You-Are Sale. I had been using a Scotsdale Laurencekirk son, and he had got accidentally hurt, and I wanted to influence more of his blood in my herd. He was out of the best cow that Nagely's sold in their reduction sale at a top price.
